About Today's Affirmation of Faith

The Confession of Belhar arose from the struggle against apartheid in South Africa and was added to the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Book of Confessions in 2016. It calls the Church to visible unity, reconciliation, justice, and faithful witness.

Today's Litany of Confession also affirms our confidence that God hears our confession and extends grace to us through Jesus Christ.

Litany of Confession

Leader: What do we believe about the Church of Jesus Christ?

People: We believe in the triune God, who gathers, protects, and cares for the Church through Word and Spirit.

Leader: Who are we as the people of God?

People: We believe in one holy and universal Christian Church, the communion of saints called from the entire human family.

Leader: What has Christ called the Church to demonstrate?

People: We believe that reconciliation with God must become visible in our reconciliation with one another. Unity is both God's gift to the Church and our calling to pursue.

Leader: Where is the Church called to stand?People: We believe that God is especially revealed as the One who brings justice and true peace. Therefore, the Church must stand against injustice and with those who are wronged.

Leader: How then shall we live?

People: We will pursue unity, reconciliation, justice, and peace; bear one another's burdens; serve God in the world; and resist everything that threatens the dignity and unity of God's people.

Leader: Whom do we confess as Lord?

People: We believe that Jesus Christ is Lord. To the one God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

CONGREGATIONAL SONG

Holy, Holy, Holy

Verse 1

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning, our song shall rise to Thee;
Holy, holy, holy! Merciful and mighty!
God in three persons, Blessed Trinity!

Verse 2

Holy, holy, holy! Though the darkness hide Thee,
Though the eye of sinful man, thy glory may not see.
Only Thou art holy, there is none beside Thee
Perfect in pow'r, in love, and purity.

Verse 3

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
All Thy works shall praise Thy name,
in earth and sky and sea.
Holy, holy, holy! Merciful and mighty!
God in three persons, Blessed Trinity!
